*Into the Cold:
A Journey of the Soul*

This powerful film follows environmental advocate and adventurer Sebastian Copeland and partner Keith Heger as they venture more than 400 miles on foot through sub-zero temperatures on a harrowing journey to reach the North Pole. Few have successfully made this voyage—one of the toughest feats known to man. A moving story of endurance, courage, and commitment, Into the Cold transports us into the mind of an explorer facing insurmountable odds in a rapidly vanishing environment. Available on Earth Day.
